LOT 149 - Large Decorative Ring with Glittering Stone

Description

The product shown is a large decorative ring with a prominently set round stone that has a fiery, glittering appearance. The stone is surrounded by a silver-colored band with small sparkling accents. The ring is displayed on a wooden hand model, suggesting it is likely used for display or artistic purposes. The wooden hand features movable fingers, typically employed for art, jewelry display, or teaching. The ring appears to be in good condition, suitable for collectors or as a statement piece.
